

LUCAS DEPPERMANN

ldeppermann@kmclaw.com | 801.328.3600

SHAREHOLDER

Lucas Deppermann is a member of the firm's Tax and Estate Planning section. His practice focuses on international, federal, state, and local tax planning as well as nonprofit organization formation and operation. Mr. Deppermann has experience advising clients on the complex tax issues involving the formation, operation, and disposition of C corporations, S corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies. Mr. Deppermann has represented both private and public clients in a wide variety of transactions, including domestic and cross-border stock and asset acquisitions and dispositions; tax-free mergers and reorganizations; the formation and operation of, and investment in, private equity and hedge funds; and the formation and operation of nonprofit organizations.

EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Kirton McConkie, Mr. Deppermann was an associate in the New York office of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison, LLP.

EDUCATION

Washington University in St. Louis School of Law, JD, summa cum laude, 2015

Order of the Coif

Member of Washington University Law Review

Dean's List 2012-2015

Honor Scholar Award

Cali Award recipient for highest grade in class for: Corporate Taxation, Advanced Corporate Taxation, Partnership Taxation, Bankruptcy, Torts

Brigham Young University, BA, History, 2012

ADMISSIONS & AFFILIATIONS

Bar Admissions: Utah, 2018
New York, 2016

HONORS & AWARDS

Mountain States Super Lawyers Rising Star: Tax (2023-2024)

Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America, Tax Law (2021-2022)

Utah Legal Elite: Up & Coming (2018-2021)

PUBLICATIONS & PRESENTATIONS

- The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act
03.30.2020

PRACTICE AREAS

BUSINESS FORMATION,
STRUCTURE, AND EXIT
STRATEGIES

CORPORATE AND PARTNERSHIP TAX

INTERNATIONAL LAW:
TRADE AND TAXATION

TAX AND ESTATE PLANNING

INDUSTRIES

NONPROFIT
ORGANIZATIONS